

Media Release

Sean joins Gleeds from GVA Second London Wall, where he held a senior position as retail projects director. He brings over 30 years' experience in the construction industry and specialist knowledge of tenant management within the retail sector, having recently worked on the Westgate Oxford shopping centre and the Grand Central development at Birmingham New Street.

Based in the company's Birmingham office but with a nationwide mandate, Sean's new role will expand Gleeds' service offering through the introduction of dedicated tenant management services. He will be responsible for helping clients with the management, facilitation and communication of all relevant aspects of a scheme to its tenants.

Commenting on his appointment, Sean said: "I'm really excited to be joining Gleeds and working alongside Sara Boonham and her team. As an organisation, Gleeds has built a reputation for delivering exceptional services to its retail sector clients, and I look forward to playing an active role in developing the business' tenant management capabilities across the board."

Sara Boonham, head of retail development at Gleeds, added: "The role that Sean will play is going to be key to advancing and improving the service offered by our business. Having worked with Sean previously, I know his expertise is second to none and his long and varied career makes him a fantastic addition to the team, significantly enhancing our growth and development potential within the sector."

Notes for editors